How we use your information

The information in this form is collected by and for Progress Housing Group. We collect and manage your information in line with the current data protection legislation in the UK.

The data in the form will be used for the following purposes:

- o Contacting you regarding your expression of interest (EOI) for the position of Tenant Representative Committee Member.
- o We will retain this contact against your tenancy record if you are a tenant.
- o If you are not a tenant, we will retain your information for future reference as a record of this contact and link it to any subsequent contact you make with us.

This information is processed in relation to the legitimate interests of the Group to support your expression of interest. The data will be held for the lifetime of your relationship with the Group and for a period afterwards to allow the processing of your expression of interest.

The data may be shared with relevant teams across Progress Housing Group and potentially third parties facilitating the delivery of our tenant committees.

If you would like to understand how we collect and use personal data, please refer to our <https://corporate.progressgroup.org.uk/privacy/>

By submitting this form, you consent to your personal data being used for the purposes set out in the privacy notice.
